

LONDON

Royal College of Pathologists CPD

CURRENT PERSPECTIVES IN HAEMATOLOGICAL MALIGNANCIES

Tuesday 28th June 2016

Brunei Gallery, School of Oriental and African Studies, Thornhaugh St, London

Chair: Professor Adrian Newland, Bart's Health NHS Trust

10.30	Pre Meeting Workshop (Sponsored by Gilead)	George Follows Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge
11.30	Registration
12.00	CML update – where are we with treatments and side effects	Steve O'Brien RVI, Newcastle
12.30	Targeted therapy in AML	Mike Dennis The Christie, Manchester
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Myeloma: Upfront treatment of newly diagnosed patients	Graham Jackson RVI, Newcastle
14.30	Myeloma: Relapsed refractory – are combinations the future?	Karthik Ramasamy John Radcliffe Hospital Oxford
15.00	Discussion Q and A
15.10	Tea and Coffee
15.30	Case Studies: What is the role of radiotherapy?	Tim Illidge Christie Hospital, Manchester
16.00	Novel agents in lymphoma – where are we going?	Simon Rule University Hospital, Plymouth
16.30	Future of immunotherapy: what are the check-point inhibitors?	Tim Illidge Christie Hospital, Manchester
16.50	T-Cell Therapies, CAR-T Cells and TCR gene modified T Cells	Emma Morris University College London
17.20	Summary
17.30	Close

Further details and registration can be found at www.hartleytaylor.co.uk or by phoning 01565 621967

Registration Fee: £60.00 (plus VAT)